Skeleton tree growing On his own grave He's trembling cold With a frozen wind blowing Blowing through his teeth Blowing through his mouth Battle on his big blinked eyes	He's Trem- Bling Cold His Big Blinked eyes	He's Trem- Bling Cold His Big Blinked eyes
. On my back now	Jack is on your back (8 fois)	Jack is on your back (8 fois)
I was trembling like a bird with no feather on the skin I had gasoline all over my wings He looked like a storm with a solid body He looked like a storm... He took off his shadow and put it on mine I said : «It's too large for a little me» He said : «You need this big black shadow To fight against the night It's a good shadow A bit encumbering And cold like ice... But it will protect you well » He wore a strange coat with a hundred pockets full of books I give you books 'cause books are really good to fight against the night.» Oh Giant Jack and little me...
